GRAIN PRICES HALT GAIN IN N. W. BUSINESS

Tends to Minimize Advantages of the Big Crop, Says Reserve Head

EMPLOYMENT NORMAL

Heavy Marketing of Cattle Reported, with Consequent Price Decline

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 2.—The drop in grain prices in August had a tendency to minimize the advantage of the big crop throughout the Ninth Federal Reserve district, according to the monthly report of John H. Rich, chairman of the Federal Reserve bank here, made public today.

Marketing of rye, cattle and sheep was abnormally heavy, Mr. Rich declares, and with the exception of calves which were sustained by the substantial movements of feeders back to the farms, all livestock prices declined.

The crop moving demand for money has not been heavy and interest rates have declined substantially. Investment funds are in much better supply.

Lumber, copper and iron ore production as well as building and most manufacturing has been better in volume both as compared with the preceding month and a year ago.

Employment Normal
Employment has been normal and accumulated stocks of merchandise and materials have not changed greatly except for some declines in lumber.

However, Mr. Rich points out, the general improvement both in volume of business and financial conditions has not helped profits sufficiently to reduce business failure to a normal level. It will require several months, he adds, to determine whether the apparent gain in the momentum of business in this district will continue in the face of a coal movement up the lakes equal to but 6 per cent of a year ago and if the present price level is maintained for the grains.

Prices at central markets in this district for a majority of the products of the farm, declined in August from the July figure, due rather to the weight of supplies than to the decline in demand, Mr. Rich says in his letter. "The medium price of wheat broke 30 cents between these two months, showing the effect of weak European support, as well as heavier receipts. Rye was in extraordinary favor with European buyers and declined less than 6 cents. Flax declined 5 cents, barley 7 cents and oats more than 3 cents. The median price of corn remained practically unchanged.

Cattle Marketed
"Heavy marketing of cattle and sheep broke the median price of butcher steers $2.15 and lambs 25 cents. Although there was a decline from July receipts of hogs, the abnormally heavy receipts for feeders to continue the decline which started in May, the slump this month amounting to $1.25.

"Wholesale produce prices in Minneapolis showed increase in the important quotations, except in vegetables. Eggs showed a sharp increase from 19 cents per dozen to 26 cents. There were smaller increases in butter, veal and hens. The price of the best flour remained unchanged.

"The credit situation in this district has given little indication of crop moving demand," the letter continues. "All Federal Reserve Banks during the month of August showed small increases in bills discounted and purchased and in Federal Reserve notes outstanding and a small decline in reserves. Investment funds apparently were in greater supply during August than during July and time deposits also increased slightly.

"Grain stocks in terminal elevators, totaling 1 million bushels, increased slightly during the month of August, but were one-tenth lower than a year ago. Stocks of oats were slightly larger at the end of August than at the end of July, but down one-fourth from the figure a year ago. Stocks of rye were almost eight times as large at the end of August as at the end of July, but barley stocks were down three-fifths from last year. Wheat stocks totaling less than 2 million bushels were down one-fifth from a month ago and one-half from a year ago. Flax stocks approached the vanishing point during August."

Coal Operators Seek to Frame New Wage Scale

(By the Associated Press)
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 2.—Bituminous operators and officials of the United Mine Workers of America gathered here for a joint conference today to arrange for future wage scales in accordance with an agreement signed here August 15 which ultimately brought to an end the soft coal strike.

Approximately 100 operators from the bituminous fields were present. The miners' representation includes their policy committee, numbering 128.

In addition to opening negotiations for a wage scale to supplement that which expires March 31, 1923, the conference is expected to take up the question of collective bargaining. The union is still carrying approximately 50,000 strikers in the bituminous field in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, it was learned today. Those in Pennsylvania were largely non-union when the last strike started, while those in West Virginia were union men whom the operators sought to de-unionize.

4 ARRESTED AFTER THEFTS IN JAMESTOWN

Series of Hold-ups Result in Detention of Four Men

By Police

(By the Associated Press)
Jamestown, N. D., Oct. 2.—Four men, including a negro who gave his name as Clarence Bolter and Robert McNight, a local striking shopman are being held here in connection with a series of hold-ups in the Northern Pacific yards Saturday night. The arrests were made on the information of the negro who reported to the police that he had been held up and robbed by the other three men.

It developed under the investigation of the police that the four had held up and beaten and robbed several men in the yards and that later they had disagreed over the division of the spoils. In the disagreement, the negro was relieved of all his share.

The men will be arraigned in justice court this afternoon. A search of the McKnight home Sunday disclosed several bottles of moonshine and parts of a still.

POISON FOUND IN PASTURE

Investigation Is Being Conducted by States Attorney

New England, N. D., Sept. 29.—State Attorney J. K. Murray and Sheriff Gus Buchler of Mott called here yesterday to conduct an examination in attempt to determine who was guilty of placing a quantity of poisoned bran in the pasture of C. M. Nielson.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Nielson, who operates a milk route in New England, found a registered Shorthorn bull, which he valued at $400 and four of his best milk cows, dead and five more of his cattle very sick. He called a veterinarian from Dickinson, who found poisoned bran in the stomachs of the animals.

In some high grass, near a water-hole in the center of Mr. Nielson's pasture, was found a half bushel of poisoned mash, such as had been used a year ago in the Hettinger county campaign against grasshoppers. The poisoned bait was evidently placed there recently as the grass was still green beneath the pile of bait which had been treated with arsenic.

A search warrant was issued yesterday to make a search of the premises of Harry Bohlman, who lives on an adjoining farm and operates a competitive milk route in New England. A small amount of poison was found on Bohlman's farm.

FOREST FIRE FIGHTERS STILL WAGE BATTLE

Situation Continues to be Critical and Hinges on Change in Wind

PROTECT SETTLEMENTS

Reach Such Magnitude That Rangers Devote Energies To Populated Areas

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 2.—Dawn today again disclosed the forest fire fighters in northern Minnesota desperately waging their battle with the flames in their effort to hold them in check. While the fires are said to be not out of control at any point where they are burning, the situation continues critical and a change in the direction of the wind accompanied by an increase in velocity might cause a holocaust.

Efforts are being made to steer the combined Ellsworth and Whiteface fires into the territory burned over by the old Markham fire, which it is believed would give the foresters an advantage.

Fires have reached such a magnitude, the forestry service announced that little can be done except to guide them around settlements and where possible onto areas already burned over.

Deputy sheriffs and representatives from the county engineers office have taken charge of roads in the fire zone and at intervals are guiding automobiles through the dense smoke.

POPULAR YOUNG BISMARCK MAN PASSES AWAY

Sherman Knauss Succumbs to Illness Which He Fought For Several Months

Sherman Knauss, well known young man of the city, passed away in a local hospital Sunday evening after an illness which extended over a period of many months. Death was due to a complication arising from heart and kidney trouble.

Herman was 27 years old, having been born in Garber, Ia., April 4, 1895. Not long after this his parents moved to Syracuse, N. Y., where Sherman entered the public schools. In 1902, he came with his parents to Bismarck, completing his school courses here as a graduate of the Bismarck high school.

During the summer months Sherman worked in the office of the Bismarck Tribune, learning the trade. He was an earnest worker and became an employee of The Tribune. He became a member of the printer's union. In 1920, seeking broader experience, he went to Fargo, worked for a time on the Forum as a linotype operator and the following year went to Billings, Mont., in the employment of the Billings Gazette.

There he met J. E. Clavendish, a native of Switzerland, and former member of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, under whose tutelage he became a proficient as a cellist. Last June he returned to Bismarck for a visit, and as he was in failing health he was advised to rest. When his condition did not improve he was taken to the Bismarck hospital where he remained for about two months, but the best medical aid failed to restore his health.

Sherman became intensely interested in his musical work, and during his illness, after a stroke of his aspirant and his desire to continue his studies on his recovery. He retained his cheerfulness and confidence all during this time. In his boyhood he was united with the Presbyterian church. He was devoted to his aged mother who, with his brothers, Leo and Plato, are surviving members of his family here.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Evangelical church. Burial will be in the city cemetery.

The body can be viewed by the friends of the deceased at the family residence Wednesday morning from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m.

LAWYERS GOT ALL DIVORCE SETTLEMENT

Mildred Harris, Wife of Charlie Chaplin's Bankrupt She Says

GOT ONLY "MERE" $6,500

Former Husband Bars Her Pictures When His Are Being Shown on Bill

Los Angeles, Oct. 2.—Mildred Harris, motion picture actress, now on a vaudeville tour, declared she received only $6,000 from her former husband, Charles Spencer Chaplin, screen comedian, after the lawyers had been paid, and she is about to go into bankruptcy, according to a letter received from her here which the Los Angeles Times printed today.

Miss Harris' financial condition was brought about by two long illnesses and by being out of work for many months, said the letter. "I have been hounded for months by my creditors and have been paying most of my salary out to them weekly," the letter, dated St. Paul, read. "I cannot satisfy all my creditors, and they are suing me. Mother and I have been nearly crazy for weeks.

"Besides this, an ex-producer of mine is suing me for a large amount that he has no right to do, as he is the one who two years ago sent me east to buy clothes for three pictures, and then cancelled my contract on account of my divorce. Mr. Chaplin would not stand for me on the same program with him.

"I believe I told you of losing our house and furniture through my illness last year. Mother and I had put everything we had into it. We lived nearly a year on the money Charlie gave me which was about $5,000 after the lawyers were paid."

"So my only way out is bankruptcy. I have fought it over a year, but there is nothing I can do. I shall do what is right. To those that are deserving when I can, I am not trying to cheat anyone."

In taking the oath the new member, with the court, bar and audience standing, swore to faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon him, having before entering the court room in his robes, taken the official or "iron clad" oath to support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies.

Adhering to custom the court was to close its session in time to permit a formal call by the court at the White House to pay its respects to the President, the program of business for the opening session included the delivery of no opinions or entries of orders, being confined only to the usual acceptance of motions for admissions of attorneys to practice.

The withdrawal of the name of William R. Hearse as a candidate during the afternoon smoothed out the only issue that threatened to precipitate a conflict in the convention, and the state prepared by the state leaders went through a lull at the closing session of the convention.

Dr. Royal S. Copeland, of New York, was nominated for United States senator.

CONFERENCE TO DECIDE ON NEUTRAL ZONE

Great Britain Recedes From Position to Avoid Outbreak of Hostilities

TURKEY DEMANDS THRACE

Wants to Cross Straits in Pursuit of War Against Greeks

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—An immediate mutual agreement to suspend all movements of troops was expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice conference which is set to meet tomorrow.

With an armistice conference definitely fixed for tomorrow at Mudania, the need of war between Great Britain and Turkey appeared less menacing today.

Great Britain's recession from the neutral zone controversy caused no little surprise and disappointment here, but it was generally admitted this step was the only thing which could have stayed Mustafa Kemal Pasha's hand. It is pointed to as another evidence of England's extraordinary patience and earnest desire to avoid war.

With the time of the issuance of Brigadier General Harington's temporizing note Saturday night, the situation looked exceedingly critical. It is now conceded his tact and tolerance, coupled with the timely arrival of reinforcements from England, prevented the Turks from striking at Chanak.

Situation Strained
The situation Saturday afternoon was so strained a break seemed inevitable. The British orders were to defend Chanak at all costs as the Turks were slowly enveloping the Dardanelles citadel.

Saturday morning the Turkish forces were increased by 1,500 cavalrymen and everything indicated the beginning of a hostile move. New difficulties await the British at the armistice conference. It is known that the Kemalists will insist upon the British withdrawal from the Asiatic shores of the Dardanelles and the immediate evacuation of Thrace by the Greeks.

They will probably also demand the right to cross the straits to pursue the Greeks as well as guarantees against the use of Turkish waters by Greek warships and transports. The presence of Greek war craft at Rodosto furnished the Kemalists with a pretext for accusing the British of ignoring their pledges regarding the non-use of neutral waters by the Greeks.

It is expected the conference may drag for several days as the Kemalists doubtless will bargain and haggle over every point. It is felt that the influence of the Italian generals will be an important factor in bringing the meeting to a successful conclusion.

The British declare they will insist upon occupying the Asiatic banks of the straits, even at the peril of the conference. They may also contest the immediate withdrawal of the Greeks from Thrace making this conditional upon acceptance of the allied peace proposals. The invariability of the straits will be stoutly defended.

The allied policy at the Mudania conference, it was learned, this forenoon, will be decided upon at a meeting in Constantinople this afternoon of the allied generals, admirals, high commissioners and military attaches in extraordinary council.

The conference will discuss the occupation of Eastern Thrace of detachments of inter-allied troops during the Greek army's withdrawal.

The expectation here is that the Greek evacuation will begin immediately after the conference, permitting the establishment of the Turkish administrative control.

RUSSIA SENDS NOTE

Moscow, Oct. 1.—The Soviet Russian government has sent a note to England, France and Italy protesting against the blockade of the Dardanelles and insisting upon the removal of all restrictions to the free passage of trading ships through the straits.

The note says the manner in which England is "endeavoring to control foreign seas and territory" shows indifference to the interests of Russia and the other Black Sea states.

The note accuses the entente of interfering with the efforts of the Russian government to re-establish normal conditions in Russia through the enforcement of the blockade, despite certain concessions already made by the Soviet.

YANKEES TO BATTLE GIANTS ON WEDNESDAY

Best Four Out of Seven Will Determine World Championship Series

Chicago, Sept. 2.—The pennant-winning New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals will battle for the world championship on Wednesday at the Polo grounds of their second straight contest for the world's championships. The series this year will be the best four out of seven, instead of five out of nine, as a year ago.

Saturday's victory for the Yankees over the Red Sox, clinching the pennant, proved to be the margin by which the Huggins held the top when the season closed yesterday. They dropped the final contest when Washington hammered Sam Jones to the tune of 16 and St. Louis Browns, runners up, concluded the season with their third straight triumph over Chicago, 2 to 1.

With the National league pennant decided in favor of the Giants the first of last week, the chief interest in the National league's concluding drive was the battle for second place.

Cincinnati under the leadership of Pat Moran, ousted Pittsburgh from the runner up position on the final day by twice trimming the Pirates, 5-4 and 5-1. The double setback left the Pirates in a tie for third place with the St. Louis Cardinals, who wound up the season by defeating Chicago, 7 to 1. Cleveland also upset the standing in the American league on the final day, crowding Chicago out of fourth place by defeating Detroit, 9 to 5, while the White Sox lost to the Browns. The Tigers held third place by a single game.

The Giants regulars, playing behind a recruit twirler, Johnson, were blanked in the first game of a doubleheader by Tim Lincecum, college rookie of the Boston Braves, while McGraw's substitute aggregation blanked the visitors in the second contest with Nehf, McQuillan and Scott on the mound. The scores of both games were 3 to 0. McGraw's victory was his second shutout in a week, Brooklyn falling a victim to his curves a few days ago.

Behan of the Phillies blanked the Dodgers, 6 to 0, in the remaining contest of the season's final.

"BABE RUTH" NOSED OUT BY HORNSBY
Is Home Run as Well as "Swat" King of Baseball

New York, Oct. 2.—Rogers Hornsby, besides batting himself into baseball's hall of fame as the first national league player to finish with a mark over 400 in twenty-three years, has succeeded Babe Ruth as home run king.

Hornsby finished the season with 42 circuit clouts, 17 behind Ruth's record crop of 59 the season before. Ken Williams of St. Louis Browns, leading the American leagues was three behind the Cardinal star with 39. Tillie Walker, chief of Connie Mack's sluggers, occupied third place with 37 and the former monarch, Ruth, registered 35 four base blows. Ruth, despite the handicap of a late start, due to his suspension, was unable to gain on Hornsby from the time he rejoined the Yankees on May 20. The Cardinal clouter had six home runs when the Babe was restored to good standing and finished the season seven ahead of his Yankee rival.

The grand total of 1,054 homers set the new mark for the lively ball, exceeding by 117 the record of 937 for both leagues last season.

Only An Athletic, Rommel Has Won As Often As Bush

ROMMEL

BY BILLY EVANS.
Connie Mack is nothing if not original.

Regardless whether his team finishes first or last Connie keeps breaking into print.

As a developer of players the Athletics' tall leader is in a class by himself. On practically every American League club there is some star player who received his early schooling under Mack.

Once upon a time the fans could talk about nothing but Connie's famous $100,000 infield, composed of Melnes, Barry, Collins and Baker.

Great Pitching Trio.
Then there was his great pitching trio, Jack Coombs, Chief Bender and Eddie Plank.

American League batters were happy when these three stars lost their effectiveness and passed out of the big league picture.

The Athletics of today boast of Edwin American Rommel the pitcher with a thousand and one deliveries.

American League statistics have recorded the deeds of Joe Bush, Urban Shocker, Herman Pille and other pitchers belonging to first division and pennant clubs, but what about a pitcher on a near-eighth place winning as many games as the leading pitcher of a pennant winner?

Then there's Rommel.
There's the case of Rommel.

For Rommel with the Athletics, has won as many games as Bush with the Yankees.

Rommel blew into the American League without any brass band reception. Like a flock of other minor league kids he reported to Connie Mack in the spring of 1920 at the training camp at Brownsville, Tex.

A year before he had been turned down after a brief trial by John J. McGraw, but Mack, trying to rebuild a pennant machine, was willing to gamble with anything, and Rommel was one out of a lot of 200 young pitchers that spring.

Barring a knuckle ball, Rommel did not boast of anything out of the ordinary.

Best in the League.
But gradually he perfected this freakish shoot, until today he is regarded as the greatest pitcher in the American League.

For pitcher with a second division club to be voted the second most valuable player in the league there is unusual glory and Rommel, in the vote of eight baseball critics, ranked next to George Sisler.

Rommel was born at Baltimore, Oct. 13, 1897, stands 6 feet 2 inches and weighs 180 pounds.

BISMARCK AND MANDAN CLASH HERE FRIDAY

High School Teams to Battle In First Game for South-west Championship

The Bismarck and Mandan high school football teams will clash on the local gridiron on Friday afternoon, October 6 at 3:30 p. m., it was announced today by Coach Houser.

The game had originally been scheduled for Friday. Both Bismarck and Mandan will point all their energies during the next four days to final preparations for this game, which is expected to decide the right of one of the schools to participation in the state tournament as representative of the southwestern district of the state.

The Bismarck players have the memory of two stinging defeats of last year by the Mandan school to spur them on. The first game last year played at Mandan was one of the finest high school games ever seen in the state, but in the second, Mandan game last year Mandan was an easy victor.

The local team played the alumni of the Bismarck school here Saturday afternoon to a scoreless tie. The game was not announced, Coach Houser desiring the game to be in the nature of a secret workout. The local team did somewhat better on defensive work, but could not score on the alumni. Frank Roberts, Benton Flow, Tyler Kludt and David Cook made up the backfield of the alumni team, which also included Johnny Mcwan, Rigler, Holts and Doyle. The game was slow because the alumni team was not in good condition.

Coach Houser planned not only daily workouts on the field this week but after-supper blackboard drill and talks. The Bismarck team has a lot of good material but it is realized that over-confidence of lack of knowledge of the fine points of the game on the part of some of the new men may hurt the team in the Mandan game.

The Mandan backers were spreading the usual bear stories Sunday, after the game Saturday afternoon with the state training school in which the training school won, 3 to 0. At the same time Bismarck backers were pointing dubiously to the fact that the training school scored a touch-down on the Bismarck team and failed to do so against Mandan. The Mandan team is said to be very fast and tricky.

MANDAN HIGH LOSES BATTLE

In a tough gridiron battle at Mandan Saturday afternoon, the State training school beat the Mandan High School 3 to 0.

The high school twice had the ball within striking distance of the State School's goal line but lost in fumbles.

The feature of the games was the work of Baglien, quarterback and captain of the training school's team. He made the only score of the game with a drop kick from the thirty-yard line. Baglien is a Minneapolis boy.

Dempsey vs. Siki? "Jack'd Kill Him!" Ring Expert Says

SIKI

By Bob Dorman
New York, Oct. 2.—The victory of Battling Siki over Georges Carpentier has left the pugilistic world of New York gasping for breath.

Not that astute fight promoters are so nearly off, but that they have been able to cable at least a half dozen challenges to the newly risen French star on behalf of their pet charges. To most of them, however, the name Siki was just that—a name—and nothing more. Neither had any of them supposed it was a name worthy of their slightest consideration.

Al Lipp, manager of Jeff Smith, the middleweight, knows Siki perhaps better than any man in New York.

He saw quite a bit of him when in Paris last spring and he says: "I could hardly believe my ears when I heard that Siki had defeated Carpentier."

Only a Middleweight.
"In the first place he is nothing more than a middleweight when in shape, 160 pounds being his normal fighting weight."

"He is not more than 5 feet 8 inches tall."

"He never has received any consideration from Europe's shrewd fight managers, being passed from one to the other as they needed a meal ticket."

"A thousand franks was the most he ever received for a fight and generally his purses ran about 200 to 300 francs."

"He knows absolutely nothing of the art of self-defense, though he has a terrific kick in either mitt."

"His idea of fighting is to stand up to the other fellow and give and take until one of them goes down and out."

Limit of Brutality
"To match him with Dempsey or Wills would be the limit of brutality. Either one would kill him in one round."

"By mere slugging he managed to win the French heavyweight title, defeating Paul Hans, and by this victory over Carpentier he has the light world."

"But all the men he has beaten have been of very small caliber except Carpentier, and his condition was questionable."

"There are at least a dozen middleweights and lightweights in America who could defeat him."

"He is coal black in color and a very neat dresser."

"Most of his time is spent with his wife, a French girl, making the rounds of the Paris cafes and the boulevards."

Sees All His Fights
"His wife is his shadow, where you see one you see the other."

"She sees all his fights, and is the boss of his training camp when he can be induced to train, which is not often, as he is very lazy."

"He came to France with the French colonial troops from Senegal and served with distinction throughout the war."

"But to bring him to this country to fight Wills or Dempsey would be nothing short of murder."

NORTH DAKOTA GETS IN FILMS IN "FREE AIR"

Picturization of Sinclair Lewis' Stirring Novel to Be Shown Here

Many people who have dropped a hint not taken by movie producers that North Dakota had lands and the rolling prairies of the "Sunshine State" would furnish excellent outdoor studios will have a chance to see if their opinion is right. For "Free Air," shown at the Capitol Monday and Tuesday, will contain North Dakota settings.

Almost everybody has read Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street," a lot are reading "Babbitt," and many have read "Free Air." The latter, his first popular book, deals in incidents discovered during a motor trip of the Red Trail, through Bismarck, to the coast.

The company which produced the picture was formed in New York and left on a special train for St. Paul where the opening scenes were made. From that time on, until the company reached Glacier Park where the concluding scenes were shot, the company lived out of doors and worked out of doors for a period of more than eleven weeks.

Out of Montana the director, E. H. Griffith, needed a special type to play the part of a native farmer. More than a score of people responded and Director Griffith finally selected a man who was sheriff at Fargo when Fargo was a wild community.

Some of the scenes in the picture were taken at an altitude of more than 10,000 feet, and on one occasion the company was caught in a blinding snowstorm. Many of the locations were found by an airplane scouting trip by Lieut. Becker, an ex-army flier.

North Dakotans will take special interest in the film as it is perhaps the first big feature picture which has scenes actually taken in North Dakota. The picture is a Hodgkinson feature.

PYTHIANS PLAN EXTENSION IN NORTH DAKOTA

Executive Committee Holds
Meeting in Bismarck to Lay Plans

Plans for extensive organization work by the Knights of Pythias lodge in North Dakota during the coming winter were laid by the executive committee of the grand lodge in a week-end meeting here, it was announced today by W. H. Francis of Velva, Grand Chancellor of the Grand Lodge of North Dakota. Others participating in the conference were A. W. Patterson of Leith, Grand Vice Chancellor; Dr. W. T. Sprake of Casselton, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal; C. B. Bach of Minot, supreme lodge representative from North Dakota.

The state will be divided into 12 districts and a deputy named for each district, Mr. Francis said. The district deputies, in conjunction with officers of the grand lodge, will manage the extension work of the order in the state.

"The slogan adopted for the season's work is 'A new lodge in every district—every lodge active,'" Mr. Francis said, adding: "Pythianism is coming to the front in North Dakota and there is every reason to believe that the coming season will be one of the most successful in the history of the order."

"Many of the subordinate lodges report applications for membership already are coming in, with lodges just opening their initiation work after the summer vacation."

Mr. Bach, who attended the conference, also is superintendent of the lodge insurance division for North Dakota, Minnesota and the eastern half of South Dakota. He is en route to Sioux Falls, S. D., to attend the grand lodge session of South Dakota.

The executive committee also urged the members of subject lodges in the Southern half of the State especially in the South Western area to take an active part in lining up members in the new temple D. O. K. K. the play ground of the Pythianism which is to be launched in Mandan in the near future.

The membership will be launched for Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan and they have granted a charter to Mandan Pythians and membership will be initiated throughout the Southern half of the State.

CONFERENCE TO DECIDE ON NEUTRAL ZONE

ed the press comment for the last few days gave way to hope today, although not to absolute confidence that war has been averted.

The bulk of press opinion is that General Harrington has saved Great Britain from war thus far and there are many eulogisms of his tact and skill, the hope being added that he will be left a free hand to deal with the situation until it is settled.

WANT THRACE EVACUATED.

Paris, Oct. 2.—The French representative at the Mudania conference is expected to support the Turkish proposal for the evacuation of the neutral zones in return for the immediate evacuation of East Thrace by the Greeks. The fear is expressed, however, that Great Britain will not consent to such a plan, especially at conference at which there is not provision for Greek representation.

Further danger to the success of the conference is seen in the firm decision of the British not to retire from Chanak, and should the Turks make this retirement one of their conditions it is foreseen that an agreement might be impossible.

Approval of the Turkish proposal, it is pointed out, would be a substantial concession to the Kemalists as the allied powers in their note made the neutrality of the zones of the straits as one of their chief conditions.

APPROVE ACTION

London, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Nationalists assembly at Angora has unanimously approved the action of Mustafa Kemal Pasha and has authorized the dispatch of delegates to Mudania and later to the peace conference, according to a Central News dispatch from Constantinople.

NEW TRACK IS LAID TO MINE

Wilton, N. D., Oct. 2.—The mine of the Washburn Lignite Coal company will have direct connection with the Pangloss-Wilton branch of the Northern Pacific by means of a spur which is being put in. The spur leaves the Northern Pacific track east of the mine at the land grade and grading is already well on the way.

Two side tracks are being laid, one for empty cars, the other for loads, which will greatly facilitate the moving of coal from the mine to the Northern Pacific. Heretofore all coal and empties have been placed on the transfer south of Chapin, necessitating a long haul and much loss of time.

HAGEDORN FIRST MEMBER.

Dickinson, N. D., Oct. 2.—Herman Hagedorn, author of "Roosevelt in the Bad Lands," and well known to many people in Dickinson and Minot, has been enrolled as the first member of the Billings County Red Cross drive for 1923. This week the secretary of the Billings county chapter received a substantial check from Mr. Hagedorn, who is now in Europe studying and at the same time writing a new novel of the Bad Lands, which will soon go to the publishers.

NORMAL OPENS AT DICKINSON

Larger Enrollment Expected During the School Year

Dickinson, N. D., Oct. 2.—With all indications pointing to the largest enrollment in its history the Dickinson State Normal school has entered upon its fifth year.

At least 200 students are expected for the fall term, Pres. S. T. May said. Inasmuch as the greater number of these will come from the farm, it is probable that registrations for the first week or two will be light on account of the busy season. First classes were held today.

Following is the faculty as announced for the coming year:

Music and Drawing—Mabel R. Harrison.

Commercial Alice Eaker.

English and Home Economics—Grace Hume.

English—Miss Bushy.

Penmanship and Spelling—Bess M. Reed.

Physical Education—Kathleen Hargrove.

Training School Supervisor—Ann Gilmer.

History and Civics—R. Roy Willett.

Mathematics—N. H. Mewaldt.

Science—J. E. Manning.

Athletics—M. L. Lancaster.

It is probable that two more instructors, one for education and one for the elementary branches, will be added to the faculty before the first of the year, Mr. May said.

Two new instructors are listed among the faculty. Members this year, Miss L. C. Hargrove, who comes from Lincoln, Neb., to take charge of the newly established physical education department for girls and N. L. Vanmeter of Enid, Okla., who will supervise athletics for boys.

In addition to doing other school work, both Miss Hargrove and Mr. Vanmeter have had special training in these departments and come highly recommended. Athletics and physical training will be featured at the Normal this year to a greater extent than ever before. It is the hope of the school to develop strong football and basketball teams. The main floor of the armory has been secured for the term and will be used by the classes in physical education and for practice work.

Carpenters have seen hard at work making up changes in the Normal quarters in the Elks' building under the direction of Pres. May and as a result more space has been made for every department.

INDIAN SUMMER OR ISN'T IT?

Controversy Rages After
Weather Observer's
Statement

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 2.—A controversy is raging in this section as to whether there is or is not an Indian summer.

R. E. Spencer, U. S. Weather Observer at Moorhead, Minn., just across the Red River from Fargo, started it when he authorized publication of a newspaper story to the effect that there is no such thing as a well defined Indian summer. "Everybody in the world," read the story, he says, and a large portion of the laymen who read it have taken occasion to disagree with him.

Here are some of the definitions of Indian Summer or comments on it which were given to him by people who believe in it:

An old lady—"Indian Summer begins when people begin to plant potatoes."

A gentleman from Indiana—"Down in Indiana where I come from they do have Indian Summer, but it's a fact that I've never seen it up in this part of the country."

School teacher—"A period of mild weather some time between the first of September and the last of November."

Heating plant engineer—"A mild period during the last part of October or the first part of November. The period which warned the Indians of approach of winter."

A barber—"Indian summer starts at the time the sun crosses that line, whatever it is."

"The weather is always changing from cooler to warmer and back again," commented Mr. Spencer. "Naturally there will be some cold snaps in the fall, followed by warmer periods. Why not call the cold periods that come when spring is well advanced, 'Indian Winter'?"

Charge Agents Withdraw Liquor

Bulletin Washington, Oct. 2.—Certain unnamed "representatives of the department of justice" are declared in federal grand jury report made public here today to have withdrawn quantities of seized intoxicating liquor from storage during 1920, with out due process of law, and to have disposed of a part of it by appropriating it for their own use and by giving it to friends and relatives.

The grand jury further held that the liquor was "disposed of by such officers and employees with sanction and approval of those in higher authority at that time." The report added, however, that "in view of the unprecedented circumstances, surrounding the case," it had been decided not to return indictments against those involved. The withdrawals were all said to have taken place prior to September first, 1920.

But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly.

MOTHER!

Move Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry mother! Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of California Fig Syrup and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary. Ask your druggist for genuine directions for babies and children of "California Fig Syrup" which has all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Atty. O'Hare Speaks On Playgrounds

City attorney, H. F. O'Hare, told the people last night at the Baptist church that the city of Bismarck was in need of a park board, but such a board was not a practical thing unless the people become interested enough to petition the City Commission for such. He said that the City Commission would be glad to listen to the people when they were sufficiently interested. The City Commission Mr. O'Hare said, could do little for parks and playgrounds so long as the people believed that the taxes are already as high as they cared to pay. Yet he showed that through a ten-year period $146,000 could be raised, enough to equip the community with fairly good parks and playgrounds.

Mr. O'Hare said that the recreational life of the community should be backed by all the churches. The trouble, he said, was that there are so many churches they have all they can do to take care of themselves. Recreation should not be left to individual institutions nor to commercial organizations as such but should be strictly community interests. Most of the ordinances which have been desired by the public have been remedial, he said. There has not been sufficient positive programs suggested. The community cannot afford to take away all forms of amusements while it puts nothing in their places, he affirmed.

BLOOMER DRESS IS BEST FOR SPORT

Sportswomen have solved the ideal costume. After much discussion of bloomers pro and con a satisfactory compromise has been reached in the bloomer dress. It's a plain, slip-on dress with round little collar, either short or long sleeves, wide patch pockets and a skirt that slits up to give one plenty of freedom and buttons fast to give one necessary decorum. Bloomers with wide cuffs are made of material to match the dress. These costumes are shown in all summer materials and are beginning to appear in jersey and homespun as well.

Embroidery is used to a great extent and so are trimmings of the material itself—pleatings and tucks and tailored tabs. Wide sleeves are often lined with silk of a brilliant shade to give a color contrast. Colors are gorgeous, Amber, cocoa, chocolate, bronze and the annual convention of federated clubs Devils Lake.

So much is heard nowadays of "overworking." This business man is all run down from overworking or that college girl has ruined her health from too much study. So the stories run. Most people, however, who are "overworked," are, properly speaking, simply the victims of bad air, bad diet or worry. They believe that because they are tired, it must be the work that is hurting them. Work seldom hurts anyone who is physically fit. That is the one big essential. Keep every organ and muscle in your body in trim and you will be able to stand any amount of work. People who get all run down from overwork and then are forced to take vacations, naturally improve in health while resting, but if they had taken care of themselves at work no forced vacations would have been necessary. When the body has a terrible load of unphysiological habits to carry, additional work is a strain. Ailments and disabilities are attributed very commonly to the less important instead of the most important causes. Consequently, the average health-seeker makes the error of correcting his daily regime in some non-essential respect. Great and permanent results require the adoption of an all-round, well-balanced regime. Don't say you haven't time to take care of yourself. Simply form hygienic habits, exercising all you can, sleeping eight hours every night, and eating plenty of vegetables and fruits and your health will take care of itself.

News of the Markets

RUSH TO SELL FORCES WHEAT TO DECLINE

Chicago, Oct. 2.—In a general rush to sell, the wheat market underwent a sharp fall today during the early dealings. Greatly diminished likelihood of fighting at the Dardanelles was the chief factor which induced selling, and led to the break in price. Transportation difficulties to the East, both on the lakes and railroads, together with heavy marketing of wheat in the spring crop region, had a further bearish effect. The opening which ranged from 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 lower, December 1.04 to 1.04 1/2, and May 1.07 to 1.07 1/2, was followed by continued weakness interrupted in some cases by a slight rally.

Corn and oats were under less selling pressure than was the case in wheat, and were relatively firm. After opening 1/2 to 1/4 lower, December 58 1/2 to 58 3/4, the corn market recovered most of the loss.

Oats started 1/2 to 1/4 to 1/2 off, December 36 1/2 to 37, and later showed slight general gain. Provisions were neglected in the early part of the day, and were nominally without change.

Bullish crop estimates were responsible for upturns which subsequently took place in the corn market. Prices closed firm at 1/2 to 3/4 cents net gain, with December 59 1/2 to 59 3/4.

NEWS OF WALL STREET

New York, Oct. 2.—Week end developments in the Near East indicating brighter prospects for peace brought a flood of buying orders into the stock market at today's issues. Oils, gains of 1 to 3 points being quite numerous among active issues. Oils, steels, equipments and merchandising shares led the advance with more moderate gains being recorded by the rails and coppers. Extensive short covering accelerated the advance. Mexican Petroleum was pushed up three points with gains of 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 being recorded by Standard Oil of California and New Jersey, and Pan American. The advance in steels was led by Crucible and Gulf Steels, each of which mounted two points while gains of 1 to 1 1/4 took place in United States Steel, common. Republic, Bethlehem B and Midvale. Baldwin and American Locomotives each improved more than 2 points, as did May Department Stores, United Retail Stores, Consolidated Gas, Studebaker and American Tobacco. Reading led the rail list with a gain of 1 1/4, and U.S. Steel at the head of the copper list with a similar advance.

The higher prices were not maintained after the first batch of buying orders had been executed. The immediate requirements of the shorts having been met, prices sagged steadily, the recessions in the popular shares ranging from 1 to 2 1/2 points. There were indications that comparatively outside buying had been attracted into the market. Bear operators furnished the principal source of supply on the down grade, with sales well below recent averages. A renewal rate of 4 1/2 percent for call money also acted as a check on extensive buying operations. The list advanced again around noon in response to a brisk rally in Consolidated Gas which was pushed up more than three points, an active inquiry for equipments, which extended their early gains.

Buying of seasoned dividend paying stocks inspired more confidence among the bulls and prices crept up slowly to the earlier high figures of the morning or above. Shorts were impressed by the quality of the buying and the fact that prices moved upward with the same facility as downward. United States Realty and Improvement, American Locomotive and United Retail Stores, ad-tations, but mixed grades were mostly taken by the shippers.

No. 1 and 2 yellow was quoted at 102 cents under December mixed at 2 1/2 cents under.

Oats were steady and offerings liberal. No. 3 white was quoted at 2 1/4 cents over December, No. 2 white at 1/4 cent less, No. 3 white at 1/4 cent less. Rye was firm and unchanged, most of the good quality selling around 1 1/2 cents over. Barley prices were inclined to be easier and the demand was hardly so good. The market was quoted at 46 1/2 cents. Flax demand was good in the face of liberal offerings. No. 1 seed sold at 20 1/2 cents over to local crushers, according to quality.

WHEAT MARKET WEAK

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 2.—A weak situation developed in the wheat market today, prices sliding off around 2 1/2 cents during the first three hours trading. A wave of selling came at the opening as a result of the more hopeful Turkish situation. Buying power to absorb the offerings was lacking with bearish sentiment intensified through the handling situation at the Eastern terminals and elevators. Congestion was reported at Buffalo, at the Georgian Bay ports and at Montreal. The vessel rate on grain for Buffalo delivery today was five cents a bushel, and the shipping interests demanded $750 a day demurrage charge after the first four days. As prompt unloading of boats could not be guaranteed in view of the elevators being plugged up, shippers were not disposed to charter new tonnage.

OFFERINGS HEAVY

Minneapolis, Oct. 2.—Foreign news was the big news in the wheat market and easing of the tension in the Near East was the signal for considerable selling. Offerings of all grains were heavy and the general trend of prices was lower, but in spite of a lot of bearish news, the undertone turned stubborn after a moderate decline.

Corn offerings were heavier and shipping bids lower. There was some local demand for choice yellow at a fair premium over shippers quote.

FINE CATTLE ARE ADDED TO PRISON HERD

Board of Administration Buys
Registered Holstein for Use in Dairying

WOULD SELL CALVES

In purchasing purebred Holstein cows of fine stock for the state prison at Bismarck and state insane hospital at Jamestown, the state board of administration today announced it has in view not only the maintenance of dairies for the institutions but the building up of fine herds which may eventually help furnish purebred sires for farmers interested in carrying at a reasonable price. It was pointed out by board members that aside from the initial cost the board can render the aid in the promotion of dairying with no more expense than is involved in the maintenance of present grade dairy herds.

The board also has authorized herdsman at the two institutions to attend the national dairy show on the Minnesota state fair grounds, and will have representative at the show of North Dakota day, October 10.

If you were only five would you undertake a trip from Brazil to New York unaccompanied by an older person? Nylicia Pereira did and brought along her sister Leny, 4, and both arrived safely.

DAIRY CIRCUIT FIGURES GIVEN

Schneider Cows Lead Burleigh-Kidder Production

Two cows owned by John Schneider took first and second places in milk and butter-fat production in the Burleigh-Kidder county dairy circuit for the month of September, according to the report of Carl Wolten, superintendent of the circuit. A cow of the state prison herd took third place.

The 288 cows on the entire circuit produced 148,076 1/2 pounds of milk and 6,435 pounds of butter-fat during the month. The leading cow produced 18.02 worth of butter-fat; the second 15.92 and the third 15.84. The total value of the butter-fat sold from the circuit was $1,793.58 for the month.

The herds on the circuit are being steadily built up. The purchase by the state board of administration of nine purebred Holsteins for very fine stock is the most important acquisition of the circuit. T. Allison and P. Gosney of Sterling have purchased together a purebred sire from the herd of John Obova, north of Bismarck. Louis Garske, member of the circuit, recently sold a purebred sire to Birlea Ward.

COUNTY TAXES BEING PAID

Second Installment of Real Estate Taxes Due Oct. 15

The county treasurer's office is now receiving fairly steady stream of taxpayers, paying the second installment of their taxes which become due on October 15. The receipts thus far indicate that taxes will be pretty well paid up, according to Treasurer J. A. Flow.

A 5 per cent penalty will be added to delinquent real estate taxes if not paid by October 15, and an additional penalty is assessed on delinquencies for the second half payment on November 1.

The annual tax sale will be held on the second Tuesday in December. Personal property taxes not paid by October 15, according to the law, will be placed in the sheriff's hands for collection.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 2.—The Milk Producers' Co-operative Association of Chicago, holding contracts with 4,500 Southern Wisconsin farmers for disposal of their milk is illegally doing business in this state, Alvin Reis, assistant attorney general, attached to the department of markets advised company officials and hundreds of farmers here at the opening of the commission hearing on complaint against the Illinois marketing concern.

CORN AND WILD OAT FODDER.

Beach, N. D., Oct. 2.—Farmer F. J. Hill tells of a new wrinkle in stacking fodder for his stock. He had a field that ran largely to wild oats, so he cut this and made 14 stacks, alternating layers of wild oats with corn fodder, and is confident he has something the cattle will like through the winter months. In addition to this he has 40 stacks of grain to thresh.

AT THE MOVIES

"Manslaughter," 3-Star Picture, Is At Eltinge

"Manslaughter," classed by motion picture critics as one of the few really great motion pictures of the year, comes to the Eltinge theatre tonight. It is one of the famous "three-star" pictures—Thomas Meighan, Lois Wilson and Leatrice Joy, all classed as stars and featuring pictures, appear in the one picture.

The picture is the creation of Cecil B. DeMille. DeMille has been noted for his characterization of human emotion and for his lavishness in attaining the atmosphere he desires. One of the features of "Manslaughter" is a scene of the barbarian invasion of Rome. This is a brief episode in the picture, the story being a modern drama.

"Manslaughter" has been seen by thousands of people in the large cities and the early showing at the Eltinge was made possible only through the Paramount contract signed by the management earlier in the season, under which it obtained the greatest features of the Famous Players-Lasky combination, as well as all regular Paramount pictures.

The story of "Manslaughter," from a story in the Saturday Evening Post, follows:

Lydia Thorne, a capricious wealthy girl, while speeding in her automobile, causes the death of a motor policeman, and is prosecuted by Dan O'Bannon, a district attorney, who loves her. O'Bannon is shocked by the gaiety of modern society and mentally paints a picture of the downfall of Rome.

Rome. This tremendous epoch is shown in all its splendor, O'Bannon impersonating Alaric of Goth, and Lydia the most beautiful and prodigious woman in Rome.

Lydia's conviction of manslaughter through O'Bannon's efforts, and her sentence to term in prison, enrages Lydia and when O'Bannon calls on her in the prison, she attacks him and collapses. In her delirium she fancies she has shot O'Bannon in the courtroom and when she recovers, she realizes that she loves him devotedly.

But O'Bannon, in remorse, dissipates, neglects his duties and gradually sinks into the depths of humanitarism and uplift work. One night, O'Bannon, covered with snow, enters a coffee kitchen she has established and recognizing her, flees. She drags him back and tells him of her love.

He reforms and two years later regains his prestige and is a candidate for governor. When told Lydia, as a former convict, can never become the wife of a governor, he resigns his candidacy despite her protests and finds happiness in her love.

Landis Hits Pools

By NEA Service
Chicago, Sept. 27.—"Baseball pools are decidedly bad for both the great American game, and our American social life," declares Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of the baseball leagues of America.

"While the pools are not concerned directly with which team wins or loses," says Landis, "they are a vicious influence."

"And inasmuch as the pools share their victims, because of their interest in baseball, they are an injury to the games."

O'CONNOR ASKS "FLOUR WEEK"

Says Laying in Winter's Supply Now Would Help
Wheat Prices

Grace City, N. D., Oct. 2.—J. F. T. O'Connor, candidate for United States Senator, spoke here Saturday afternoon and discussed the issues of the campaign. Mr. O'Connor showed that many things could be done by the Federal Government that would assist the Northwest; and if elected to the Senate he pledged himself to these measures. "If the people in the large cities really wanted to assist the farmers at this time of depression they would buy their winter supply of flour now. Flour can be purchased cheaper now than later and the buyer would get this advantage as well as assist the farmer. People buy a winter supply of coal; then why not flour? If the various Commercial clubs and civic bodies would take this up considerable benefit would come to the farmers."

Mr. O'Connor then suggested that a certain week be set aside as Flour Week, and urged executives of state and city to assist in the matter.

"There are still several hundred thousand Christians in Smyrna and the interior, whose lives are in peril for the time limit of the evacuation has expired," she said. "Only Providence knows what their fate will be."
